MEMORIES

[illegible]

A black and white photograph of a group of approximately 20 young men standing in front of a building with a corrugated metal roof. The men are arranged in a line, some slightly behind others. They are wearing light-colored pants decorated with various names and drawings, and dark shirts. The building has a large arched opening on the left. The ground is dirt and there are some plants in the foreground. The background shows trees and a fence.

Dedication

To Susie Lee Cummings, who, through her own knowledge of language, has inspired us to think to read to write to speak,
we, the seniors, take this opportunity to express our often unspoken but sincerely heartfelt THANKS.

In Memoriam

EUGENE MARTIN

Foreword

We, the Senior class of 1960, wish to present to the students of Rockville High School a remembrance of their past school year.

May the joys and sorrows of all your high school days linger long in your "Memories."

Dennis Lee

Dennis Lee

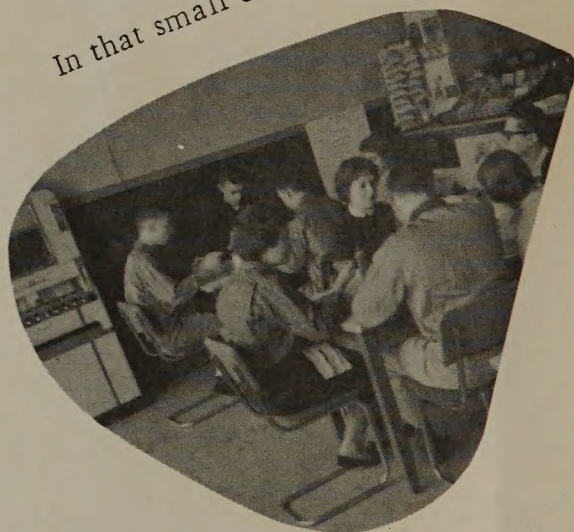

Senior Class President

We'll be seeing you in all the old familiar places

That this heart of mine embraces all day through--

In that small cafe,

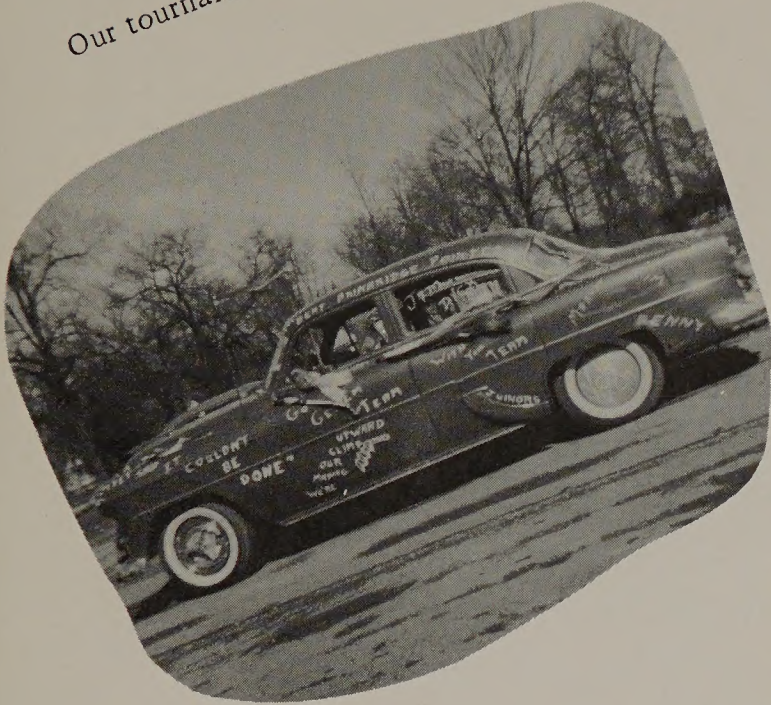

The park across the way,

Compliments of CARL ASBURY

Our tournament zeal,

The Christmas tree,

The wishing well--

We'll be seeing you in every bright, cold wintry day,

Compliments of
BARNES MORTUARY

In everything that's light and gay,

We'll always think of you that way.

We'll see you in the morning sun

And when the night is new;

We'll be looking at the moon,

But we'll be seeing you!
